San Diego, CA – 619.881.6422

Wilson Petty represents clients in all phases of securities and commercial litigation. His practice focuses on a broad range of complex commercial matters, including state and federal cases involving fraud, misappropriation of trade secrets, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, and related business torts. In addition, Wilson effectively handles complex and high-stakes civil litigation, including the defense of claims involving catastrophic injury, premises liability, product liability, and professional liability.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Wilson gained valuable experience at a prominent national civil litigation firm as a member of the Complex Trial Team.
